

Your complimentary use period has ended.
Thank you for using PDF Complete.

Click Here to upgrade to Unlimited Pages and Expanded Features

Millennium Volunteers Newsletter

Hello! And welcome to the autumn (which means fireworks!! Wahoo!) edition of the newsletter!
Keep a look out for all the millennium volunteer and star volunteer information.
We'd like to say have a great autumn and thanks for all the hard work that you do!

The Newsletter Team.
James and Jess

Did you know?
The Vale Volunteer Bureau can help find the right volunteer path for you! You will be amazed at the range of volunteering opportunities here in the Vale of Glamorgan.

Millennium Volunteers in the Vale of Glamorgan:
Congratulations! You are one of the many 16-24 year olds in Wales who are changing the world around you and making a huge difference to yourself and your community.
There are 22 volunteer centres in Wales that coordinates the Millennium Volunteers scheme, to help young people and organisations that are involved with MV. In the Vale it is the Vale Volunteer Bureau, at 34 Holton Road, Barry. CF63 4HD. You can send your RECORD OF HOURS sheets to us here or contact holly@vvb.org.uk with any queries.

Earlier on this year, our former youth volunteering officer Rachel Oldman left the Vale volunteer Bureau to go back to university. We would like to say goodbye and a big good luck to Rachel back at university, but of course with every loss there is a gain! We would like introduce our new youth volunteering officer Holly Williams. Holly is now well settled in to the bureau so we would like to wish her luck in her new career at the Vale Volunteer Bureau.

Good Luck Rachel!!

A big congrats to the following volunteers who have completed their 200 hours!

The following people have received their 200 (yes that's right!!!) 200 hours:

Lewis Davies, Joseph Lewis, David Westacott, Lorence Mallet, Jade Foley, Hiral Narbad, Leighton Newman & Ashley Balier.

VB NEWS!!!

The new edition to the VB NEWS!!! Yes, yes we know some of you think that the news is rather boring but believe us, you're bound to love this new edition to the newsletter!

Enjoy!

August

On the 23rd of August 2010, an event was held in the mayor's parlour to award those who have given their time and effort to volunteering in the Vale of Glamorgan.

September

On the 6th September 2010 Carl Sargeant AM, minister of social justice and local government along with Jane Hutt AM, minister for business and budget met with four young people, Lewis Davies, Lawrence Sutton, Conner Rollings and Matthew Jones.

The third year of Dish out Dosh has finished. We would like to say good luck to all the organisations that received money from the Dish out Dosh scheme.

If you would like to read the full story or have more information on the above stories; visit our website: www.vvb.org.uk

Upcoming Events!!!

Here are some of the upcoming events in the Vale of Glamorgan:

- Halloween at Cosmeston
Saturday 30th October, Cosmeston Medieval Village, Penarth
The dark side of medieval life, authentic and spooky as villagers tell tales of terror!
Cost: adults £5, children/concessions £2, family [2+2] £12
Tel: 029 2070 1678 for full details
- Barry Fireworks Fiesta
Friday 5th November, Barry Island, 7:45pm
Enjoy the fireworks extravaganza, organised by Barry Rotary Club in aid of local and international charities.
Tel: 01446 704736

To find out more and explore the opportunities pop down to:
34 Holton Road, Barry, Vale of Glamorgan, CF63 4HD
Tel: (01446) 421782